Ex 24:16 The glory cloud "rested" on Mt. Sinai, and the Hebrew word translated "rested" is shekinah, a word that both Jewish and Christian theologians use to describe the presence of God.

Application:

1. Justice is the practical outworking of the righteousness of God in human history.
2. As the people of God, we are not bound by the standards of the world, but by God's standards.
3. All that we have is on loan from the Lord. We need to keep a heart that is joyful and thankful because of God's gracious provision.
4. Like God's call to Moses for deeper worship, our worship of God is directly tied to our willingness to give God first place.
